

Preparing for Delta Module Two: Task 2 – teaching check list

Assessing your own teaching.
 Score each area between 1 (weak) and 6 (strong).
 A score of 1 implies you perform very poorly indeed.
 A score of 6 implies you are nearly perfect and have nothing to learn.

#	Area	Score
1.	Your relationships with your learners:
	Do you treat people equally?
	Are you approachable yet an authority?
	Do you tend to favour the outgoing and contributive more than the shy and silent?
	Do you know all your learners' names and use them to make sure everyone is treated fairly?
2.	Your own language:
	Are you always understood first time?
	Do you use pidgin English?
	Do you mumble and mutter?
	Is it clear from your voice tone what you intend?
3.	Giving information:
	Do you always give the right information about language?
	Do you always give the right information about skills?
	Do you listen closely to what your learners produce and correct when necessary?
	Are you confident that you have analysed what you teach?
4.	Managing the classroom:
	Do you have to repeat and repair your instructions?
	Do you know why you are monitoring activities?
	Do you often run out of time?
	Can you confidently handle all the technological support available to you?
